

Kaspakova Gauhar Maratovna was born on May 27, 1978 in Zhambyl region, Merki district, Sarykuby desert, and grew up in Zhanatas city. In 1995, he finished the school named after Abylaikhan, and entered the department of poetry and poetry at the humanitarian college of culture and art in Taraz in 1995-1997. In 1997, he came to Almaty and won the main prize at the "Young Wing" song contest. In 1997, "Algashki Prasnam" was released in Urumqi.

On the recommendation of the Ministry of Culture of Kazakhstan, he was invited to study at the Kazakh National Art Academy named after T. Jurgenov in Almaty, and went to contests in far and near foreign countries to fly the flag of Kazakhstan. In particular;

1997 international "Shark Taronalari" song festival diploma winner.

1998 - "Voice of Asia" international festival, Asian diploma student.

1999 - Issyk Kol-99 international pop and folk music festival. 1st place.

1999 - "Shanghai Asian Music Festival Organizing Committee 99. New Vocalist" prize.

1999- "Laureate of the Kazakhstan Youth Union Award".

He finished his studies in 1999 and continued his work in the "Kazakhconcert" Art Association. Video clips were shot for the songs "Why", "I Love You", "First Spring", "I'm Thinking About You".

In 2002, on the occasion of the 5th anniversary of his creative activity, he held a solo concert called "The First Spring". The repertoire includes more than 100 pop and folk songs in different languages (Kazakh, Russian, Kyrgyz, Turkish, Chinese, English). He also actively participated in various government concerts and cultural events.

Between 2005 and 2014, she got married, became a mother, and was engaged in raising children. Also, she shot videos "Mother", "My daughter", "Let's dance".

Currently, he is engaged in teaching activities. With children with speech impediments, diction, range expansion, vocalization, etc. b. deals with children.

20 years later, in 2019 T. K. In 2021, in order to increase his teaching experience and knowledge, to become a qualified specialist, he entered the master's program at the Zhurgenov National Academy of Sciences and received a master's degree in art studies.