

Art, Time and Tradition: A Museum Encounter

On January 8, 2026, as part of the Silver University program, a regular lecture was held at the National Central Museum of the Republic of Kazakhstan. The lecture was delivered by L.A. Kenzhebayeva, Senior Lecturer at the Faculty of Art History, Department of History and Theory of Fine Arts of the T. Zhurgenov Kazakh National Academy of Arts, a highly qualified specialist and an experienced art historian.

During the lecture, participants became acquainted with unique exhibits representing the material culture of the Kazakh people in the museum's Ethnography section. Special attention was given to an art-historical analysis of silver jewelry from the 19th–20th centuries.

The second part of the event was dedicated to the republican reporting exhibition of the Union of Artists of the Republic of Kazakhstan entitled "Echo of Time". The exhibition clearly demonstrated historical continuity and the preservation of artistic traditions within Kazakh fine art.
