

“Silver University”: A Meaningful Lecture at the Museum

On January 22, 2026, as part of the “Silver University” program in the field of Fine Arts, another lecture was held. The lecture was delivered by L. A. Kenzhebaeva, Senior Lecturer of the Faculty of Art History at the T. Zhurgenov Kazakh National Academy of Arts, an experienced art historian, at the Abilkhan Kasteev State Museum of Arts of the Republic of Kazakhstan.

During the lecture, participants became acquainted with selected works displayed in the halls of Kazakh fine art, the works of Abilkhan Kasteev, Russian art, Western European art, as well as Kazakh decorative and applied arts. The audience attended an in-depth lecture that explored the historical and aesthetic aspects of the development of fine art.

