

Lecture for the participants of the “Silver University” on Kazakh Song and Vocal Art

On February 10, 2026, at the Kazakh National Academy of Arts named after Temirbek Zhurgenov, within the framework of the “Silver University” program in the field of “Traditional Musical Art,” Honored Worker of Kazakhstan, Professor of the Department of “Traditional Musical Art,” Nurzhan Zhanpeisov delivered a lecture entitled “The Golden Bridge of Kazakh Song Art.” The lecture was dedicated to the 100th anniversary of the birth of People’s Artist of Kazakhstan, singer-composer Danesh Rakishev. During the lecture, the creative work and biography of the singer-composer were presented, and his songs were performed. An overview of Kazakh song art was provided, with detailed information about performance schools and their representatives.

The lecture was aimed at expanding the knowledge of the participants and learners of the “Silver University” about Kazakh song art and deepening their artistic outlook.
