 Protocol No. 2 September 26, 2025

1. Scope of Application

1. This Regulation on the Academic-Methodological Council of the Republican State Institution «Temirbek Zhurgenov Kazakh National Academy of Arts» subordinate to the Ministry of Culture and Information of the Republic of Kazakhstan (hereinafter – the Regulation), establishes the procedure for the administrative and legal consolidation of the status, organizational structure, powers (rights), and responsibilities of the Academic-Methodological Council within the RSI «Temirbek Zhurgenov Kazakh National Academy of Arts» (hereinafter – the Academy).
2. The requirements of this Regulation are mandatory for all members of the Academic-Methodological Council within the scope of their activities.
3. This Regulation is part of the system of internal normative documents of the Academy.

2. General Provisions

4. The Academic-Methodological Council of the Academy (hereinafter – AMC) is a collegial advisory and consultative body of the Academy, responsible for coordinating and providing methodological support for educational activities, as well as reviewing academic and methodological documentation within the framework of implemented educational programs.
5. The Academic-Methodological Council is established to ensure a unified methodological policy of the Academy, to improve the quality of the educational process, and to enhance the content, forms, and technologies of teaching in accordance with the legislation of the Republic of Kazakhstan in the field of education and the internal normative documents of the Academy.
6. In its activities, the AMC is guided by the legislation of the Republic of Kazakhstan in the field of education, normative legal acts of the Ministry of Culture and Information of the Republic of Kazakhstan, the Charter of the Academy, the Academic Policy of the Academy, this Regulation, and other internal normative documents of the Academy.

7. The Academic-Methodological Council conducts its activities in interaction with the Academic Council of the Academy, academic committees, structural subdivisions of the Academy, and other collegial and consultative bodies within its competence.

8. Decisions of the AMC are of a recommendatory nature and are subject to implementation in the manner established by the Academy, including through consideration and approval by the relevant authorized bodies of the Academy.

9. The organizational, technical, and documentation support of the AMC's activities is carried out in the manner determined by the Academy's administration.

10. This Regulation is approved by the order of the Rector of the Academy and enters into force on the date of its approval, unless otherwise specified by the Rector's order.

3. Goals and Objectives of the Academic-Methodological Council

11. The goal of the Academic-Methodological Council is to provide methodological support for the Academy's educational process, aimed at improving the quality of student training and enhancing the implementation of educational programs.

12. The main objectives of the AMC are:

- to develop and implement a unified academic-methodological policy of the Academy;
- to provide methodological support for the activities of the Academy's structural subdivisions in the implementation of educational programs;
- to review academic and methodological materials prepared by academic committees, academic quality councils, faculty councils, and other structural subdivisions of the Academy, within the methodological competence of the AMC;
- to provide methodological support for the introduction of modern educational technologies, digital learning tools, inclusive and internationalized approaches in the educational process;
- to analyze the results of the academic-methodological activities of the Academy's structural subdivisions;
- to develop recommendations for improving the content, forms, and methods of teaching;
- to initiate and participate in the preparation of draft internal normative documents of the Academy concerning academic-methodological activities;
